

February 7, 2017

The 2nd Southeast Asia Judicial Workshop on Cybercrime

On Tuesday February 7th, 2017. Mr. VeerapolTungsuwan, the President of the Supreme Court, presided over and delivered the opening remarks of the 2nd Southeast Asia Judicial Workshop on Cybercrime at Plaza Athenee Hotel, Bangkok together with H.E. Mr. Glyn T. Davies, the Ambassador of the United States of America. The Judicial workshop is held on during February 6th – 10th, April 2017, on its main purpose to follow up the situation on Cybercrime Prevention in Southeast Asia and to allow the participants to share their experience and issues concerning cybercrime in each country. The honorable guest speakers are Mr. Thomas Dougherty, U.S. Department of Justice Regional Legal Advisor for Cybercrime in Asia and Senior Trial Attorney, U.S. DOJ Computer Crime and Intellectual Property Section, U.S. Embassy – Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, Honorable Beverly Reid O’Connell, U.S. District Court Judge, Central District of California, Los Angeles, California, Honorable Paul Grimm, U.S. District Court Judge, District of Maryland, Greenbelt, Maryland, Mr. Ovie Carroll, Director of U.S. DOJ Cybercrime Lab, Mr. Daniel Ogden, Senior Digital Investigative Analyst, U.S. DOJ Cybercrime Lab, Mr. Albert Rees, Senior Counsel and International Affairs Coordinator, U.S. DOJ, CCIPS, Washington, DC, and Mr. Evan Williams, Intellectual Property Law Enforcement Coordinator (IPEC) for Asia and Senior Counsel, U.S. DOJ, CCIPS, U.S. Consulate Hong Kong, The 2nd Southeast Asia Judicial Workshop on Cybercrime is made possible by significant contribution of the Office of the Judiciary of Thailand, the U.S. Embassy in Bangkok. The U.S. Department of State’s Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement and Narcotics Affairs, and the U.S. Department of Justice’s Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development Assistance and Training.

